We give below a fac simile of a letter received from the commission house of Brown, Wood & Kingman, agents for the sale of Andrew Gingham, who has been offering and selling to the public at a low price, the Gingham line. It is made to show our customers that we are doing just what we say—selling goods very cheap. But as we do not wish to injure the retail jobbing trade of Milwaukee and the Northwest, we shall be obliged to advance the price of Andrew Gingham's goods to the retail price. We have been so extensively advertised, we feel that we cannot advance the price till after Saturday, March 25. From that date the price will be 10 cents per yard.

We think, however, that it is rather queer that the commission house should request us to hold an umbrella over the heads of the jobbers of Milwaukee and the Northwest.

Messrs. T. A. Chapman & Co., Milwaukee, Wis.
Dear Sirs:—

We have had a number of complaints within the last twenty-four hours regarding our advertised price of new styles Andrew Gingham at 8 cts. We respectfully remind you that these goods are sold to jobbers at 9 cts per yard, less 10 per cent, with a conditional bonus of 5 per cent, providing the goods are not jobbed under 5 cents. The matter of retail price of course, is something with which we have nothing to do, but you will find the package at same price as jobbers—no premium for reflection you will be willing to sell the goods at a fair profit over the jobber price. We enclose you some samples sent to you from our stock, and respectfully request you to put the price at 10 cents. We do not wish to injure you as to your business, but feel sure that you will readily appreciate the quality of the goods which your advertisement has put in our hands. We are very glad to furnish you with the Andrew Gingham, and we want you to keep them, and if you will give this matter your personal attention you will place us under personal obligations.

Yours respectfully,
BROWN, WOOD & KINGMAN.

SARGENT AGAIN.
Congressman Finney Proposes that the House Vindicate Him.

A Southern Member Wants an Investigation of the Cincinnati Riot.
—Republican Caucus—In Congress—Capital Gossip.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—Mr. Finney, of Illinois, offered a resolution in the house today, the object of which was to have the House of Representatives investigate the Cincinnati riot. The resolution states that Minister Sargent has been able, faithful, and dignified, and was referred to the committee on foreign affairs. Mr. Finney having been asked what the object of the introduction of his resolution was, he said: "I do not think that it is proper for the American Congress to allow a minister representing America in Germany more thoroughly than any American minister has represented America in any European court, to be snubbed, either by Prince Bismarck or President Arthur, without giving expression to the opinion of the American nation on the subject. I think that the resolution is proper for the purpose of emphasizing the respect which the American people hold Minister Sargent for the manner in which he has acted in Germany. We do not care what the opinion of Prince Bismarck is, nor do we care what the opinion of Mr. Secretary Frelinghuysen is as regards Mr. Sargent. We want to recognize Mr. Sargent as an American who has done his full duty as an American in a foreign court."

Congressional Summary.
WASHINGTON, April 1.—In the Senate, the bill presented a communication from the attorney general, stating that his force of employees was too small to supply promptly the voluminous papers called for, and asking for more help. Favorable reports were made on bills for the creation of public buildings at Chicago, Opelousa, and Portland. A petition was presented asking compensation to citizens of Kansas for property destroyed in the Cheyenne raid of 1878. Mr. Platt explained the provisions of an act regarding the patent office in separate departments. David D. Brown was confirmed as judge of the Eighth district.

In the house, the committee on public health reported back a resolution directing an investigation as to the adulteration of food and drugs as not within the province of congress; but it was recommitted, by a vote of 17 to 115. A resolution was offered by Mr. Nichols, requesting the Sherman committee of the senate to inquire into the circumstances of the riot at Cincinnati. Bills were introduced to grant right of way through the Indian territory for the Pacific & Great Eastern road, to make Oakland, Cal., a port of delivery, to repeal the internal revenue tax on tobacco and the distillation of apples and peaches; to equalize the taxation of foreign and domestic insurance companies, and to appropriate $400,000 for sufferers by the overflow of the Mississippi. Henry Small was sworn in as a member from South Carolina. Mr. Bland laid the debate on the trade-dollars bill, and urged the immediate passage of it.

International Bill of Lading.
WASHINGTON, April 1.—Secretary Frelinghuysen has directed a letter to Congressmen in James, of Brooklyn, on the question of an international bill of lading. He says he has instructed Minister Lowell to bring the question before the British government, and to propose, in the interest of commerce, that the two countries adopt a form of bill of lading, which will be effective and equitable. He says further that he has instructed Minister Lowell to present the text of the Liverpool conference of 1875, as modified by the produce exchange committee in May, 1883, as a point from which to begin work on a form for the bill. The secretary has also requested that the matter be laid before her majesty's government as soon as practicable.

Wants Investigation North.
WASHINGTON, April 1.—A joint resolution was offered in the house by Mr. Sargent, of Georgia, asking that Senator Sherman's Senate investigating committee be instructed to investigate the riots at Cincinnati. The resolution sets forth that it is alleged, and currently reported in the public press, that for several days the city of Cincinnati has been terrorized by a riot composed of vigilante committees and knuck organizations, which have subverted the law of the land and destroyed the public tranquility in repeated efforts to lynch certain persons confined in jail, charged with crime, resulting in the loss of many lives and much property.

The Alleged Mineral Land Frauds.
WASHINGTON, April 1.—Members of the legislature of New Mexico recently petitioned congress, through Representative Springer, to investigate the alleged corrupt conspiracy to private use, through the aid of ex-Commissioner Williamson, of millions of acres of land in New Mexico and Colorado. Chief Clerk Harrison, of the general land office, says that the department has authority of law for everything done in such matters, that the department is not in the habit of allowing homesteading of mineral lands, if it is known, but the government may have been imposed upon in this respect.

The Pacific Railroads.
WASHINGTON, April 1.—The house committee on Pacific railroads heard Commissioner Armstrong, regarding the object of the pending bill, proposing an increase of payments of the Pacific railroads into the sinking fund. The commissioner submitted a series of computations to show the amounts of interest and dividends payable on the several series of increase proposed. The committee thinks it will reach a conclusion at an early day.

Republican Caucus.
WASHINGTON, April 1.—Immediately after the adjournment of the senate a Republican caucus was held, which lasted until 11 o'clock. The object of the caucus was to confer in regard to the future order of business. Several speeches were made by senators having measures pending, and it was finally decided to refer the whole matter to a committee.

Notes.
WASHINGTON, April 1.—The secretary of treasury decided that imported gold and silver are dutiable at 25 per cent, as gold coins.

Sixth Auditor This reports that the gross receipts of the post-office department for the quarter ending Oct. 31, 1883, were $11,140,654 and for the corresponding quarter of 1882, $11,041,719 for the corresponding quarter of 1882.

The senate confirmed the nomination of David J. Brewer, of Kansas, to be United States circuit judge to succeed Judge McCreary.

The United States supreme court has rendered a decision respecting the fraudulent issue of national bank stock, in which was involved the question of responsibility of a bank for the value of the certificates of its stock issued by one of the officers without the knowledge of the directors. The court held that a bank, in such case, was not liable.

A recent report by a special agent of the land office, that a tract of 730,000 acres of public land in Colorado had been forced by parties without the slightest authority, has attracted the attention of congress. Commissioner Metcalf has recommended that public territory be made a penal offense.

With the additions made by the senate committee on appropriations, the naval bill calls for $20,750,000. This includes $2,000,000 for continuing work on the detached ironclads, and $2,500,000 for additional steel vessels.

For the past five months the regular of the government were $2,747,000 in excess of the expenditures. When national housekeeping is conducted in this manner, it is not surprising that the preceding period, it appears that the customs payments have decreased $15,000,000 and the internal revenue receipts nearly $21,000,000. But the expenditures also show a falling off of over $10,000,000.

Charles H. Conrad, a tobacco manufacturer of Danville, Virginia, testified before the Sherman committee that there was no prejudice against the negroes, but against the whites from the north who were colored people into trouble and then deserted them. He informed the committee that no set of men engaged in building up a town would ever allow negroes to control it.

CUBAN FILIBUSTERS.
Report of an Expedition Organizing at Key West.

SAVANNAH, Ga., April 1.—News has been received in this city that a filibustering expedition against Cuba has been organized at Key West, and it is said that large numbers of men and arms are ready at that place to embark. The United States revenue cutter "Houma," stationed at this city, the Hugh McCulloch, at Charleston, and one other, have been ordered to Key West, and are already enroute.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—The Washington authorities are not communicative on the subject of the Key West filibusters. They affect to treat it either with the utmost indifference or the greatest possible mystery. The following may serve as an illustration of attempts to obtain official information on the subject. Secretary Frelinghuysen has been asked if he could give any information as to the filibusters, replied after some reflection:

"I don't know that I ought to say anything about that matter."

"Will you say whether or not your department is advised of any trouble?"

Hesitating for a considerable time, he said: "Yes, I have heard of some trouble down there."

"Can you give me any information as to the nature of the difficulty?"

"I don't know that I ought to say anything about it. There is no serious trouble, and the affair will not amount to much."

The other officers of the state department could not be reached. Secretary Folger declined to be seen. The revenue cutters which are said to be on the watch to prevent the departure of the filibusters are subject to his orders.

National Democratic Convention.
CHICAGO, April 1.—A portion of the executive committee of the national democratic central committee met in parlor B of the Palmer house, for the purpose of holding an informal conference. There were present William H. Barnum, chairman of the national committee; H. M. Kelley, of Minnesota; W. C. Gandy, of Illinois; M. M. Hann, of Iowa, and Austin H. Brown, of Illinois. The discussion was upon the arrangements that are to be made for holding the national democratic convention, but no action was taken. The matter of the hall and its capacity was talked about. While the members, in deference to the wish of the general public, want a large hall, the committee is again discussing the matter. The matter of printing tickets was also discussed and a system will be adopted that will prevent counterfeiting. It was decided to have a committee of five to be appointed on or about the 15th inst., in New York, which sub-committee will be appointed to arrange for the coming convention. That committee will not meet until some time between May 1 and 15.

Mr. Barnum said to a reporter that for his own part he preferred no one present to the convention except the delegates, reporters and a reasonable number of invited guests, but it would be impossible to hold such a convention. It is expected that the delegates were not influenced by the feelings of the audience.

Storm on the Atlantic Coast.
NORTH SPRINGFIELD, Mass., April 1.—During the terrible gale residents saw the schooner Martha Weeks on fire and drifting upon the beach. The crew of the crew above the gale. The nearest life-saving station was several miles away and the voyagers assembled on the beach, huddled boats and miraculously saved the crew, several of them nearly dead with cold. A few minutes after the last boat reached the shore the schooner sank with a plunge and the loss. The captain's account of the hurricane and fire and the crew's awful experience is thrilling beyond the wildest romance.

The two-masted schooner Australia came ashore during the gale and is now on the flats near the Gladys house. She is loaded with lines which caught fire and will probably burn. The crew were saved.

Woods Hole, Mass., April 1.—The brig Martha Weeks, and the schooner Hannah B. Shubert, struck Sunday morning on Gravelly ledge, Pasque island, and bilged. No lives were lost. Both vessels struck within an hour in a driving snowstorm.

Death of a Cigar.
NEW YORK, April 1.—The latest report in the dynamite industry is that a new contrivance to blow up the British liner has been invented. It is nothing more nor less than a cigar, to all outside appearance innocent and natural, but which is said to contain dynamite. It is said that several boxes have been sent to London.

A Beautiful Disease.
BOONVILLE, N. J., April 2, 1883.—Yonville, a minor ailment, the Porcine Plaster, in dyspepsia, on the rat of the stomach; in acute colic, on the spleen; in torpid liver, over that organ; but I really think you should also recommend that one or two Plasters be put over the kidneys. They stimulate, strengthen and act as powerful diuretics, thus causing out many poisonous acids and salts. I have had fever and ague. All remedies I took produced little or no effect until I put Alcock's Porcine Plaster over each kidney. After using but two, the fever doubled, the malaria was quickly washed away. I have also had several attacks of rheumatism and two of gout, and by applying the plasters over the local pain and also over the kidneys, I again found your plasters wonderfully efficacious.

H. R. THOMAS.

Beware of imitations. "Alcock's" is the only genuine Porcine Plaster.

A Remedy for Lung Disease.
Dr. Robert Newton, late president of the Electric college of the city of New York, and formerly of Cincinnati, Ohio, used Dr. Wm. H. H. Baskin very extensively in his practice, on many of his best cases, new liver and restored to health by the use of this invaluable medicine, can amply testify. He always said, "So good a remedy ought to be preserved freely by every physician as a sovereign remedy in all cases of lung disease, whether it be consumption, and has no equal for all pectoral complaints."

A Temperate but Satisfying Drink There has been of late years a demand for roasted coffee of the finest quality as to bouquet and strength in the cup. Dealers in their efforts to supply this demand, have ordered all sorts of combinations, such as Mocha and Java, Arabica and Java, &c., &c., without obtaining the elixir they sought. We take pleasure in informing our readers that after many years of search in the markets of the world, Messrs. Bell, Conrad & Co., the enterprising and reliable roasters of coffee and spice men of Chicago, have secured a coffee that is a breakfast in itself. This coffee is their Plantation Java, which we take pleasure in recommending to our readers as the finest coffee grown, possessing strength and flavor, the two essentials of a perfect coffee. This Plantation Java is strictly a private growth, and by special arrangement Messrs. Bell, Conrad & Co. will control all that is grown. They guarantee the coffee to suit the most fastidious consumer or the money will be refunded.

All the leading grocers in Janesville carry the Plantation Java in stock. For sale by Conrad & Jones, W. T. Vankirk, Ball & Bates, W. F. Carle, Davies & Bro., S. Holdredge, Tarrant & Osgood.

Enthusiasts.

People on their way to church last Sunday morning, were a little surprised to notice on top of a nice residence, situated on a quiet street, in one of the banner wards, a man, a dog, and a shot gun. The dog and gun were evidently arrayed in Sunday attire, but the long-legged boots, shooting jacket and slouch hat, gave evidence of the fact that field sports were being raised to a more elevated position by the worthy representative of the race. The Cincinnati riot suggested the thought that possibly the peace and quiet of the city were in danger, and the home guards had taken into their own hands the administration of law and order. Other house toques were examined, but all was quiet and the one lone sentinel, sitting with his back against the chimney and gently whistling to call the dog in from field, made the situation more difficult to explain.

A neighbor was questioned in regard to the strange phenomenon, and like all other mysteries a little light made everything plain. It seems that our friend was in the habit of rising before dawn and going on to the house top to shoot wild geese that flew across on their way to the marshes, he had been quite successful and many a goose had been introduced to stop for breakfast.

On the particular morning in question the sportsman had gone out before daylight, not expecting to shoot anything, but merely to keep the dog in training. The absence of geese pie from the dinner table, was evidence of his good intentions. Amateurs would do well to remember that a good dog is a valuable acquisition on a wild goose chase. It will train, be well to good company and have a tendency to prevent geese from lighting on the house.

In Memoriam.

The Bonider (Colorado) News and Courier of March 21st, contains the following obituary notice. The deceased was a son of Mr. A. O. Gifford, of Johnston, this county, where he was well known previous to his removal to Colorado.

E. H. Gifford died in this city, last Sunday morning, the 15th inst., aged 35 years. The remains were deposited in the Masonic burial ground on Monday afternoon, under the direction of the Ancient Order of United Workmen, of which order the deceased was a most respected member, as he was also a most esteemed citizen of this community.

Mr. Gifford was from Rock county, Wisconsin. He was married ten years ago, in Milwaukee, Wis., to Miss Ella Hurd. They came to this city five years ago, where they have since resided, except about fifteen months in Nederland, where Mr. Gifford worked at his trade as a carpenter. Mrs. Gifford is left with two children, Jesse, nine years old, and Harry, seven years old. A brother of the deceased was present at the time of the death, who will return to Wisconsin this spring, and it is the present intention of the widow and children to return with him to the old home. In their bereavement they have shown the sincerest sympathy of this whole community.

Said a noted man of 60 years, "my brother gave me Down's Balm for coughs and colds when I was a boy. Sold by Stearns & Baker."

Stop That Whistle.

The engineer of the freight train that arrives in the city from the north at about eight o'clock in the evening, over the Chicago & Northwestern railway, rather has some spite against the city or a wife that is hard of hearing. When his engine strikes the north end of the bridge, music commences, the strains are melodious, loud, and monotonous. The residents of the first ward are partial to good music and claim to be good judges of harmony and locomotive whistles. The effort on the part of the manipulator of the particular whistle in question is very commendable. What he doesn't know about steam whistles is hardly worth finding out. If the company fully appreciate his ability they would plant a stationary engine in the center of the bridge with steam callopo attachment, and allow him to play for the benefit of the common council nights and Sundays. Season tickets could be sold, and the company might derive a handsome benefit. All joking aside, why can't this steam whistle nuisance be abated? The railway companies don't require it, and the city has reached a point where they don't appreciate it. In the language of the boy of the period, "Give us a rest."

Mr. Elmer Main was, on motion of Ald. McLean, engaged as the teamster of the west side fire engine, at a salary of twenty-five dollars per month, for self and team.

Ald. Daly moved that when the council adjourned it be to Thursday evening of this week, at 7:30 o'clock. Adopted.

Ald. Palmer called the attention of the council to the encroachments on Dodge street, by the driving of piles by Mr. Norcross. The matter was referred to the committee on highways, streets and bridges, with instructions to report at the next meeting.

One of the Finest.

Gus Williams and company will appear at the opera house in the above comedy, with Mr. Williams as John Mashler, the German policeman, of New York. The play is full of interest, and Mr. Williams has been favored with large and delighted audience wherever he has appeared. The Peoria Journal, of September 20th, says:

"Gus Williams, in 'One of the Finest,' has the credit of playing to the largest crowd that was ever in the Grand opera house in this city. The surprising audience filled every nook and corner, and sat upon the stairs and steps. The head usher, whose duty it was to notify the box office that the seats were all sold, was caught down in front and was unable to make his way back through the crowd for some time, when he did so, the sign 'standing room only' was hung out. It was unprecedented that any one should try to play against Barnum, but Gus Williams is equal to anything, and in last night's work he showed that he is able to hold his own against any competitor. The play is in his own peculiar vein, and was greeted with loud applause."

Election Day.

Many people do not understand why our charter election takes place on the first Tuesday in April, confounding it with the general election which takes place in the fall.

Section one, of Chapter two, of the city charter reads: "The annual election for ward and city officers shall be held on the first Tuesday in April, of each year, at such place in each ward as the common council shall designate, and ten days' previous notice shall be given by the common council of the time and place of holding such election, and of the ward and city officers to be elected."

This election, with one or two exceptions, comes on the same day throughout the western states, and in the country is called "town meeting day," always on the first Tuesday in April.

The fall election, which is termed the "general election," takes place on the first Tuesday succeeding the first Monday in November, in this state and Illinois, and throughout the United States when a presidential election occurs. Some of the states hold their general elections on different dates, for which see one of the political guides, or the Wisconsin "Blue Book."

From New Mexico. To the Editor.

LAS VEGAS, N. M., March 27th.

DEAR SIR:—Permit me the use of your columns for a few minutes, to say a few words to my friends to whom I promised to write when I left Janesville, as I find it more of a task to write to each one, than I had bargained for and hence I take this way of reaching them. The first question when we meet a friend is, how are you? I am feeling first rate; have not had a bad spell since I was here, I feel, almost well, eat and sleep with the best of them; in fact, Deacon Wooster says a few more miles would breed a famine in this country, and it is judgment day should come while I am here, that we would have to have a special resurrection to call me up. At any rate I hope that it will not come, for I would not like to go up from here; if they should have a Mexican for a doorkeeper I could not get in, not knowing the language; and then, again, I might have to ride a bronco and they are so slow, I would fear that the seats would be all taken before I could get there. I am taking in the city, best springs, the county and the mountains all of which is new, novel, grand, and interesting to what people call a tender foot (that's me). Every day I find something new and strange, all so different from anything we see in any other country. And the weather or climate is perfectly grand and healthful, and so far as that is concerned, I would like to live here.

Most of the people, when they first come to this country, are not exactly pleased with it; many tell me the longer they stay, the better they like it. Yesterday and to-day the wind and dust is fearful, and it is the worst they ever saw. It is easy for people to live in a country where the air is so light, or perhaps the high winds affect their memory. But as it is March, and it has no better reputation here than in any other country, we will make some allowance. I got here just about court time. Judge Axtell presiding. About the same time a man from Washington came to look after the case and his counsel on a complaint from the district, of his unfitness for the position. Being somewhat curious to know what made so many interested in the judge, I have attended court almost daily, and if the matter was left to me, I would be impeached to-morrow. A wild looking, uneducated cow boy, who perhaps was never in court before in his life, walked into court with his hat on; the judge called him up and fined him five dollars for contempt of court, with a harsh reprimand.

An express messenger boy came in with a package for an attorney, put his hat on whilst the attorney, reentered for the case, and was fined $5.00 without giving the boy a chance to explain or beg his pardon. At the commencement of the trial of the case, the judge ordered all out who did not want to stay until the court adjourned, and a Mexican came in to look after the trial, two 25¢ strapped to him, with orders to let any one in or out. Sometimes if any attorney is a little late he will have to sneak around to the back door to get in.

One day a fine looking stranger who was a little deaf, did not understand the order and rules of Judge Axtell, after a while got up to go out, the judge ordered him arrested and brought up to the bar, and by the attorneys of interest, the man who said that he was a gentleman from Sonora, and instead of a fine ordered him to sit down and stay until court adjourned; and the half is not told.

We have Mexican jurors, and everything as it comes in court has to be strained through a Mexican interpreter. Court is opened and closed in the Mexican language. Seven or eight big Mexicans armed with revolvers stand ready to carry out the orders of the court. Prisoners are brought in to court, and the sheriff stands on them day after day. It is said that the judge stands in with the Mexicans.

"This may not be as interesting to you as it would be if you were here. Some day I may write something to you about the city and the country if I don't blow away."

An Imperial Title.

Once seated in all the joints of the body Chronic Rheumatism regards its hold very much as a king does his title—right royal and not to be disturbed. But there is one agent that has no respect for his majesty's crown or prerogative, and does not fear to march right into his strongholds, and never fails to bring him to terms. It is ARTHRITIS. Says Charles F. Moore, of Chicago: "I have been a great sufferer from Rheumatism for over four years. Tried Arteriovenous. One bottle gave me so much relief that I cannot express my thanks in words."
